

PERARIGNAR ANNA CHAIR

Co-Ordinator Dr. S. RAJARAM

ABOUT

The Perarignar Anna Chair, established within our Alagappa University, stands as a testament to our commitment to honor the legacy of one of India's eminent leaders, Arignar Anna, also known as Perarignar Anna. Dedicated to promoting his vision of social justice, education, and empowerment, the chair serves as a focal point for scholarly research, academic discourse, and public engagement on issues that resonate with Anna's ideals.

Through a diverse array of initiatives, including seminars, lectures, workshops, and publications, the Perarignar Anna Chair aims to delve into the multifaceted dimensions of Anna's life, philosophy, and contributions to society. It seeks to inspire critical inquiry and intellectual curiosity among students, faculty, and the wider community, fostering a deeper understanding and appreciation of Anna's enduring legacy.

Moreover, the chair serves as a platform for interdisciplinary collaboration, bringing together scholars, policymakers, activists, and practitioners to explore contemporary challenges and opportunities in line with Anna's vision of a just, equitable, and inclusive society. By promoting research, dialogue, and advocacy on issues such as social welfare, economic development, political reform, and cultural revitalization, the Perarignar Anna Chair endeavors to advance the cause of social progress and human dignity.

In essence, the Perarignar Anna Chair stands as a beacon of inspiration and enlightenment, guiding us to uphold the principles of integrity, compassion, and service that defined the life and work of Arignar Anna. It serves as a living tribute to his indomitable spirit and unwavering commitment to the welfare of all, reminding us to strive tirelessly towards building a better, more just world for generations to come.
